MESSAGE FROM THE FFR DIRECTOR

As fall arrives it brings with it a season to give thanks through festivities, holidays and community traditions. We at Fleet & Family Readiness look forward to the opportunity to offer activities that celebrate these traditions, instilling holiday spirit and increasing morale. It’s also a time to give thanks to our support staff, who work tirelessly for our Sailors and families, supporting our overall mission.

Great things are happening during the holiday season with our Navy Getaway destinations. Now is a fabulous time to book your stay at Jim Creek, Cliffside or Pacific Beach and take advantage of the off-season rates and specials (page 15).

Complete one or all of our 5K walks/runs with our Virtual Run Series. Collect commemorative medals for each event with run themes that include our Day-of-the-Dead Dash, Turkey Trot, and Eggnog Jog.

Celebrate the season with special holiday meals to go, including Halloween and Thanksgiving, available via the Dine on the Go PNW online ordering and mobile app. Let your MWR team do the cooking and spend the extra time with family.

Family, gifts and a busy event schedule during the holiday season can compound our normal stresses. Our Fleet & Family Support Center has custom classes for you to ease your worries, such as Conflict Resolution, Tips & Tricks for Smart Holiday Spending, and Handling Holiday Stress (pages 25-26).

Our Fleet & Family Readiness teams are ready and waiting to serve you! Wishing you a safe and joyful holiday season from the entire team!

Check out these strong guys who pulled a 7,000-pound Humvee using only their lifting skills and body weight! This is just one of the many fun challenges regularly hosted by the MWR Sports and Fitness team.

More than 850 authorized MWR customers picked up a complimentary “America the Beautiful” Pass at an MWR and U.S. Forest Service pop-up tent. The annual pass, which normally retails for $80, allows the bearer unlimited entry to all of our national parks.

EXPRESSİONs
Expressions of gratitude have been linked to greater goal achievement, improved physical health, increased exercise, better sleep and even an improved ability to overcome memories of potentially traumatic events. Consider these tips and see for yourself how easy it can be to positively build health, happiness and resilience in yourself and others.

1. GO TO BED GRATEFUL. Before you go to sleep, list up to five things that happened in the last 24 hours for which you’re genuinely grateful. Think big (I’m grateful for seeing a good friend) and small (my favorite galley meal today – love that meatloaf!). It can be done mentally or you can write it down.

2. FOR A LIMITED TIME, GIVE UP SOMETHING YOU TAKE FOR GRANTED. Even if underway or forward deployed, there’s at least a small luxury you enjoy every day. Let it go for a week and notice what happens. Do you appreciate it even more? Do you feel stronger for having gone without it at will?

3. EXPRESS GRATITUDE TO OTHERS OFTEN. Give three sincere compliments a day. We feel at our best when we help others to do the same. Express your appreciation for the actions of others. Be clear and specific. After a week, see what happens – are you more focused on people’s positive qualities? Do those around you seem more motivated? Are you more enthused?

4. THINK FLEXIBLY ABOUT ADVERSITY. Bring a challenging experience from your past to mind, or a challenge you’re experiencing now, and write a list of the ways in which this thought-provoking experience has helped you to grow. This is not the same as simply “looking on the bright side” or denying that a bad event was, in fact, bad. It is about looking at stimulating experiences in their totality, flexibly from all sides, and focusing energy on the lessons learned, and the muscles strengthened. Remaining mentally tough, resilient and ready takes effort, the same way we need three healthy meals a day, and a commitment to regular exercise, psychological strength takes continuous action and reinforcement. These activities are a place to start, for you and everyone you care about.

GRATITUDE GO A LONG WAY

WHAT ARE YOU GRATEFUL FOR AT NAVAL BASE KITSAP?

Alfred Maige, better known as Al (pictured above), began his FFR career back in 1996 making pizzas in Atsugi, Japan. After nearly three decades overseas, he finally decided it was time to come home and accepted the position of manager of the Bremerton Recreation Center at Naval Base Kitsap.

One of the fondest memories Maige has about Navy Fleet and Family Readiness programs takes him back to when his son was just 8 years old. Knowing how excited he was about his upcoming birthday, the staff treated his son to a surprise party complete with a banner and table settings for all of the other kids.

Maige never forgot that kindness and does his best to make his customers feel the same way. “It means a lot that we can have such a significant impact on the military,” he says about his work.

Maige strives to make the Recreation Center feel like a home away from home and a place to be part of the FFR family, “We are there for them from child care to car care!” he says.
