A MESSAGE FROM THE FFR DIRECTOR

The holiday season is upon us. The Fleet and Family Readiness team is here to help you enjoy more and stress less with affordable, family-friendly entertainment and fitness options. Starting with Halloween, head over to the Bangor Pool for the Monster Splash Pool Party to work off all of those sugary treats. Or better yet, treat yourself to the beautiful colors of fall on a hike in the Cascade or the Olympic Mountains. Those golden larches are no trick. Another wonderful experience is the Oktoberfest celebration in Leavenworth. It's truly the next best thing to being in Munich, Germany. You will not want to miss an opportunity to visit this beautiful town, modeled after a traditional Bavarian village. Our MWR tour guides will take you there to enjoy live entertainment, German food, arts and crafts, and, of course, traditional libations. We're also celebrating the Month of the Military Family this November, so grab your kids and join us for game night at the recreation center and take advantage of our budget-friendly bowling specials. For Thanksgiving, leave the cooking to us and join us for a traditional Thanksgiving dinner with all the trimmings at the All American Restaurant in Bremerton or the award-winning Trident Inn Galley on Bangor. We also offer catering services (see back cover) and for those of you who want to burn off those extra holiday calories, we're hosting our annual Turkey Trot, a 3-mile run/walk, around NBK-Bangor. And finally, Holiday Tree Lightings are a special and illuminating way to celebrate the season. We would love to see you at Bangor Plaza on Dec. 5 for hot chocolate and other treats. Santa will make an appearance at our tree lighting and at a special breakfast at the Bangor Recreation Center and bowling at Olympic Lanes on Dec. 7. If you can't join us for the Oktoberfest trip to Leavenworth, then come for the annual Christmas Tree Lighting Festival. It's a must-see. I hope you'll join me in counting our many blessings and expressing gratitude to those around you – family, friends, co-workers, and especially our service members, here and around the world. From my family to yours, I wish you a happy and joyous holiday season.

BY HILLARY COLLINS

avy Getaways Jim Creek continues to raise the bar on exceptional hospitality. Over the last five years, this Navy-operated recreation facility, nestled in the foothills of the North Cascades, has become a staple attraction in the Pacific Northwest, drawing thousands of visitors annually. We asked two veteran Jim Creek families to tell us more about what keeps them coming back time and time again.

What led to your first visit?

Ryan and Jennifer

Roberson were first drawn by the scenery. "We loved it so much, after we had children, we have made it a tradition to take our kids as often as possible," says Roberson, who comes every year for the fishing derby "rain or shine!" The Cardenas family first visited Jim Creek while they were stationed at NAS Whidbey Island after seeing a social media post for Jim Creek's FREE Family Fun Day. "The kids could climb the Alpine Tower and do other activities, so it seemed like something fun to do," says Andre Cardenas, a retired Navy Senior Chief and father of three.

What keeps you coming back?

"The reality for us here is that we are on a budget and there often isn't extra to do super fun things together as a family. Jim Creek makes that possible for us," says Cardenas, who regularly attends Jim Creek's special events, which are usually free of charge.

"The events are truly fantastic, but honestly what keeps us coming back is how dedicated the staff is," says Cardenas. "Just when we think an event is incredible, the following one surpasses it. There is such quality in all that they do."

and appreciated as military [members]." Jim Creek also offers a variety of accommodations for visitors who wish to stay overnight or for the weekend. "Our children's first choice for vacation is always Jim Creek," says Roberson. "When we are

"Just when we think an event is incredible, the following one surpasses it. There is such quality in all that they do."

- Retired Senior Chief Andre Cardenas

"We have made some of our best memories at Jim Creek ... It's our absolute favorite spot to camp."

- Jennifer Roberson, Military Veteran and Spouse

Cardenas says he especially appreciates how the staff puts their heart into each event, from creating complete replicas from iconic movies, to joining in with the kids during a water balloon fight, or dressing up in full costume so that youth can meet their heroes. "I just want to express to you how much we absolutely enjoy Jim Creek," he says. "We feel honored, valued there, we go exploring and hike all around. the kids love looking for bugs and seeing the deer up close. We have made some of our best memories at lim Creek." The Robersons have also made an adventure out of experiencing Jim Creek's diverse accommodations. "From tenting, to bringing our RV, staying in a small cabin and trying out the luxurious ones, you really can't go wrong," she says, "It is our absolute favorite spot to camp."

The Roberson family, Ryan and Jennifer and their two children, Luke (5) and Zoie (7), stand in front of their winning entry at a recent Jim Creek Snowman Building Contest.

What is your favorite event?

"Honestly it is extremely difficult to pick just one," says Cardenas. "Each event is so unique. Even though the events are geared mostly towards children, the truth is we enjoy them just as much, if not more!" If they had to choose, however, Wizarding World is their top pick. The Robersons are fans of friendly competition: "We love when they do contests ... our family really gets into it and we have a wonderful time bonding

through working together,"

says Roberson. "One of my favorite times is when they do the Christmas decorating competition, we spend the entire Friday decorating and listening to Christmas music and then the next day enjoying all the festivities MWR has put on. It's truly magical."
